

Your Path of Conscious Giving

If you have not pledged before and would like to begin a conscious giving program, we suggest that you start at $10 per week. Or, consider making your occasional gift of any amount into a structured, regular giving practice.

If you currently give between $10 and $40 per week, we suggest a goal of $50-60 per week.

If you currently give between $50 and $100 per week, you may be ready to begin tithing if you do not do so already.

If you currently give over $100 per week, we thank you for your generosity! We are open to an extension of your giving consciousness.
