

Top Ten Reasons to Pledge to the Golden Gate Center

1. Say "Yes" to Give Yourself to Life.
Make a commitment to live in the rich and unlimited possibilities of Life.
2. Experience Gratitude.
Feel the power of giving from a grateful heart in response to all Life gives you.
3. Step into Divine Circulation and Flow.
"Money is useful when it is moving and flowing, contributed and shared, directed and invested in that which is life affirming." (Lynne Twist)
4. Demonstrate Your Faith in God as Your Source.
The act of giving focuses our attention on the source of all inspiration and good in our lives.
5. Affirm the Unlimited Abundance of the Universe.
Boldly go forth with trust in God's limitless supply of all we need.
6. Be Generous.
Being generous is guaranteed to make your heart sing and your soul soar.
7. Help Us Serve.
Pledging gives the Golden Gate Center the stable financial resources to do prudent planning and then get on with the more important business of offering revelation and unlimited possibilities in life to its community. Making your pledge is another way to be in service to a Higher Good.
8. Change Your Thinking, Change Your Life.
"We are among the most important people who have ever lived. We will determine whether humankind will grow or die, evolve or perish." (Jean Houston)
9. Be That Which You Wish for the World.
Our vision is "A World Living in Love." Make a difference in the world.
10. Inspire Others.
There is someone—maybe the person sitting next to you—who awaits your demonstration of faith in order to step into theirs.

2/25/07